

List of Canadian Local Quilt Shops (LQS) – divided by province

(Final update Feb 9, 9pm Atlantic)

This list began in February 2025 when a very large number of quilters began encouraging each other to support Canadian. With this in mind, I wanted to provide an easier way to find and support our LQs.

After calling out to our quilting community on the “Quilting in Canada” Facebook Group, readers provided an extensive list of quilt shops across the country. I never knew I would receive almost 500 suggestions for fabric, thread, sewing or quilting resources.

I would dare say that there are more.

Thank you so much for your contributions.

- Danielle R., Chloe’s Quilting Cafe

 None of the names or locations provided were verified. Names and locations are added as suggested. I will continue to edit this list on occasion but unless there are any other major changes, this post and this list will remain here until February 2026 when we all work together to revise and update the list.
