Presidents' Pen

We are weeks away from our long-anticipated quilt show! It looks like we'll be back with a full show. Thanks to all of you who are sewing, organizing, and volunteering for shifts. It's going to be great!

This month is our Annual General Meeting and as such, we'll have one meeting in the evening only. We hope many of our usual daytime attendees will be able to attend as the evenings are staying lighter longer. There are still a few key executive and committee positions we'd like to have sorted for the Fall, so review the nominations report and please ask questions of any executive or committee chair members if you are interested.

Happy Quilting, Terri Askham & Judith McLaughlin, Co-Presidents

May Guild Program

It was great to get together again with everyone who participated in the UFO workshop on April 15. The consensus was that we need more of these UFO opportunities, so we'll be sure to program that for next year.

The May program is the Global Quilt Connection's ever-popular ALL STAR VIRTUAL SAMPLER PLATTER, Saturday and Sunday, May 6 & 7 from noon to 3pm each day, live-streamed on Zoom or YouTube. Mark your calendars!

Click the link here to see the listing of the 18 different quilt teachers presenting mini-demo's on a wide variety of quilting-related projects and techniques. Each day's program will be recorded and will be available for viewing for 48 hours. Further details, including handouts for each demo and the Zoom links, will be sent out closer to the date.

Kathleen Kane, Chair, Program Committee. 250-802-3323

Welcome new member Tania McClelland from Ladysmith. Quilting for about 10 years, she has been attending Jonanco and now spreads her wings to us. She has also undertaken renovating a heritage home in Ladysmith single handedly! Wow!

Library

Only 1 meeting left to return your library materials before our summer break. We still have quite a number of books outstanding pre-COVID, so please check to make sure you haven't "buried" any Guild books. No questions asked when you return them! We would really, really like to start with a "clean slate" in September.

Again, we would like to say thank you to everyone for returning their library materials on time and hugs to our library volunteers for their hard work keeping our library running so smoothly. The Library Team

Donation Quilts

In April, we received 1 NICU quilt, 4 book bags and 86 baby hats for NRGH programs. We also received 1 twin quilt, 2 wheelchair quilts, 1 baby quilt, 1 child quilt and 10 small quilts. We will use these small quilts for our display for the Quilt Show in Country Club mall May 28-June 10. Thank you for your continuing generosity!

A reminder to sew a label onto your quilt before turning it in. We will have batting, backing and labels at the May meeting. Donation Quilts Committee, the Scrappy Bags

Placemats

We received 18 placemats at the April meeting bringing us to a total of 133 placemats and 18 tea cozies. Again, thank you all so much. I am in Maui as I write this and due to technical difficulties there is no photo this month. As usual there should be battings available at the May meeting.

If you are interested in going to Homewood and have not registered yet, pick up a registration form from myself or Vicki at the AGM in May. You will need to fill out the form and return it with $50 deposit. Cash, cheque or credit card is acceptable. Credit Card will need to go through our treasurer, Lija.

Raffles

Thank you Sue C., Tuesday S., and Ginette S. for your donations to the raffle table. They are always welcome. One of our smiling helpers is stepping down next season, just wants to enjoy the meeting. If anyone would like to sell raffle tickets, please let me know at the May meeting. It's a great way to meet guild members and they are always happy to part with a dollar or two.

Quilt Show Report

As of this writing we are only 6 weeks until set up day. Bonnie and I feel we are on track for a great show. This is due to the committee members doing their respective jobs wonderfully. You, the membership have stepped up as well with volunteering. However a little more would be appreciated to keep us from being overwhelmed.

We need to sell more raffle tickets which is a challenge because no one seems to carry money. We wonder what the solution to this would be? As of today we have 308 plus quilts. Great work everyone.

I know members are getting excited and have worked hard on their quilts. (I sneaked a peak at the entries, all look fabulous.) Not much else to say, except just come and enjoy the process and take lots of pictures. Bonnie Dormuth, & Janet Knecht (250-734-1671) quiltyjan@gmail.com

Volunteer at the Quilt Show!

Please consider volunteering for one of the 60 unfilled shifts. The Quilt Show policy is that all members will volunteer to help at the Quilt Show. Food donations for the Volunteer Room are also needed. Contact ellenellis53@gmail.com Ellen Ellis, Quilt Show Volunteer Coordinator

Quilt Show Raffle Tickets

Raffle tickets are still available and can be sold right up until the day before the draw, Friday June 9. As it stands right now we have not yet sold 1/2 the tickets. Due to poor sales I'm extending the turn in date till Friday (June 9th) at the Quilt Show.

I'll be at the AGM in May to receive sold ticket stubs and money along with more tickets for sale.

I'm still available to any one interested in selling more tickets, just phone me or text at 250 741 6071 or email judymp@shaw.ca Judy Peterson, Quilt Show Raffles

Quilt Show Boutique

The Boutique Committee has increased the amount of items one person can put into the show boutique - you can now put in any amount you wish. Keep in mind that if space is limited some of your items will only be put out for display as space permits.

We have also included the opportunity for those who have just a few items and don't really want to go to the trouble of putting them in the show boutique to donate the items (limit of 4 per person) to the Guild, and the Boutique Committee will attempt to sell or find a new home for this donation after the show. All profits from the sale will go to the Guild and your donations will not be returned to their previous owner. This option is particularly good for those of us who have taken classes and have completed our project only to have no home for it or just not loving it and it just keeps getting shifted from one hiding place to another. Drop off deadline is at the May meeting.

If you wish to put something in the show and still haven't picked up a sellers package please contact Linda Macey at wrmacey@gmail.com More sheets and packages will be available at the May meeting. Happy Sewing!

Quilt Show Challenge

I know many of us are feeling the pressure to complete our show entries quickly as the deadline approaches. I hope that working on a smaller challenge piece like this provides an enjoyable reprieve from some of the larger pieces that require finishing touches. I'm hearing the occasional question from members that is revealing enough to let me know that the entry topics are wonderfully imaginative and varied.

Please bring your Challenge entry to the May 17th meeting in an opaque bag with your name printed on the outside. Be sure your piece has a label on the back with your name and title as well as a sleeve. You will be given a receipt when you hand in your entry. That receipt will be required when you pick up your entry after the show. If you are unable to attend the meeting, please let Jeannette or me know and we can make alternative arrangements.

Challenge Coordinators Vicki Dods, Jeannette Blackmore

Depot Captains Meeting

Voting at the Quilt Show

Shortly we will reconvene at the 2023 Material Magic Quilt Show to see the beautiful work done by our members.

Here is a final reminder about your ballots. All Volunteer members will proceed to the Volunteer area to pick up their lanyards. In the lanyard will be your name tag, your Viewer's Choice ballot, and your Secret Categories ballot. Non-volunteer members and the general public will receive their Viewer's Choice ballot when they come through Admissions.

Viewer's Choice: This is a simple white ballot with two choices each for three categories: your favourite large quilt, your favourite small quilt and favourite other item. Record the quilt number which is found on the quilt tag: white for large, blue for small and orange for other. That entry which receives the most votes overall is the Best of Show and receives the CQA (Canadian Quilters' Association) Ribbon.

The two categories with the most entries will receive 1st, 2nd and 3rd place ribbons for solo entries and for duo entries. The remaining eight categories will receive 1st, 2nd and 3rd place ribbons according to the number of votes received. The duo entries will have a duo ribbon attached.

Secret Categories: Members only will vote for the 6 categories on the green ballot. Volunteer members will find their ballot in their name tag. Non volunteer members may pick up their ballots at the Information Table. Winners receive a lime green ribbon.

Past Presidents: The Past Presidents, members and non-members, will pick up their Information Package with their lanyards, name tag, past presidents ballot, list of eligible quilts and location map at the Information Table. The non-member PP's may also sign there for a Viewer's Choice ballot and a Secret Categories ballot if they wish to. The PP ballots are pink and the PP Awards are also pink.

Show Committee Ballot: Show Committee Members will find this single ballot in their lanyards with their other ballots. This is tallied with the Viewer's Choice ballots.

Balloting closes at noon on Saturday, June 10, 2023

New Business

Members of the public regularly contact the Guild about repairing or making quilts. Some members have done this type of work in the past. A member pointed out that the quilt shops have names of people interested in doing that. These requests will continue to be put in our newsletter, and Sue will respond to individual requests with more information.

This week is Volunteer Recognition Week. Terri thanked everyone for their efforts. Next year will be 40 years for Nanaimo Quilt Guild!

The program today was demos of quilt labels by Sue Creba and 2 methods of sewing on hanging sleeves by Kathleen Kane and Judith McLaughlin.

CQA Report

Final stages of preparing for Quilt Canada in Halifax are underway. They do still need volunteers to help out at the show, so if you are planning to be there maybe you would like to be part of that.

Block 4 of the Sea You in Nova Scotia, 'Lobster Feast' quilt along project is available at canadianquilter.com along with the free patterns for all available blocks plus colour chart, under the Events tab. There is one more block to come out in May and then you'll have a very east coast themed quilt to enjoy for years to come.

Dawn Piasta is the fibre artist and creative enthusiast behind this year's Quilt Along, Sea You in Nova Scotia, featuring favourite highlights of Atlantic Canada. We had a great chat with Dawn about her inspiration (see the full story in the Spring 2023 issue of Canadian Quilter). (taken from Canadian Quilters' blog)
