From the Presidents' Pens

WELCOME!

A new season of our guild begins and it is wonderful to see familiar faces and to welcome new ones. We have many returning volunteers heading up committees as well as a new face here and there so we are set for a successful 2019-2020 year of quilting and friendship.

Ethyle and I are new to our role as co-presidents and are looking forward to it with anticipation, as well as a wee bit of trepidation. However, we have lots of past presidents to guide us, as well as the enthusiasm of guild members.

A huge thank you goes to the organizers and volunteers of our June quilt show. It was an impressive display of all the creativity that exists among our members. It was terrific to see so much participation. And a heartfelt thankyou to Christine Hustins, our past president, who served us so well for three years. You did a wonderful job.

In keeping with the past few years, we want the guild meetings to be enjoyable, with time and opportunities for visiting, library, learning and displaying your sewing talents so we will do our best to keep the business items as streamlined as possible.

This first meeting of the season, as we hear from our committees, gives us the opportunity to learn the details of upcoming workshops, mystery activities, a challenge and much more. Let's get excited about the new season and what our guild offers us.

Finally, Ethyle and I are looking forward to getting to know each of you this year. We welcome your ideas and recommendations (in writing always best) and, on the off chance there are complaints, we love solutions!! Here's to a wonderful year of the Nanaimo Quilt Guild.

Elaine Cadell, Ethyle Riawetz, Co-presidents

Membership

If you did not renew your membership in the spring, you can do so at our September meeting. The membership renewal form is in the newsletter and on the Guild website. Please print the form and fill it in before the meeting and attach your payment; cheque or cash. Credit card payment will also be available at the meetings. The forms will be processed during the meeting. Completed receipts and membership cards can be picked up at the membership table at the coffee break.

The registration fee is $30.00. If you want your newsletter mailed there is an additional charge of $15.00. If you are 80 years and older at the time of registration you are entitled to Honorary Member status. Membership dues are waved, but you still need to fill out a registration form.

2019/2020 Guild Program

September 2019 Mystery Quilt sharing: If you participated in the Mystery Quilt last year please share your finished (or assembled quilt top) at the September meeting.

Quilt Along 2019-2020 $20 Participation fee

The quilt along project this year will be Summer Moon. Participants need to buy the book which is available at Serge and Sew. Indicate you are a Guild member and receive a 20% discount. Prizes will be awarded each month for completed rows.

2019-2020 Workshops

October 19 Happy Villages Val Ursulak Fee: $40

Create a happy village using only ten 6 1/2" squares of contrasting fabric. Using cotton batting as the base and a piece of sky fabric, you can be the architect of a whimsical hamlet. Adding landscaping features such as trees and bushes adds to the charm of this little scene. Karen Ekmeier's book "Happy Villages" is a requirement for this class. The book is available at Serge and Sew and you will receive a 20% discount.

November 2 & November 16 Designing a Landscape Quilt

Carol Seeley $95 registration, $6 materials fee payable to Carol. Create a small quilted seascape while learning fabric selection and Carol's special pieced appliqué construction method. This class will start with discussions on how Carol creates patterns. Then while using either one of her designs (four to pick from) or drafting your own design begin fabric selection with tips for creating visual depth in your water, sky and islands. During this step Carol's pieced appliqué construction technique will be demonstrated, using both the hand and machine methods. We will then give the seascape an authentic look while exploring the basic surface embellishment techniques used in Carol's landscape quilts. Learn the processes for creating textured objects, such as bushes and trees from far away to up close and personal. Create water movement and shading as well as a passing sail boat using thread painting and machine embroidery.

November 20 UFO Day Fee: $10 Finish some of those good ideas from your project pile while you enjoy the company of fellow quilters.

February 22 Scrappy Quilts Sandra Radley Fee: $40

Do you have bags and boxes of scraps and smaller than yardage pieces that are overtaking your sewing space? Then this class is for you. You will learn to organize and use all those left over pieces turning them into exciting quilts that suit your own style.

March 20 Trunk Show Stacy Day Fee: $10 plus an appetizer Enjoy a social evening with fellow quilters as Stacy Day shares her work as a modern quilter. This promises to be a fun evening. Beverages will be provided and we ask participants to bring a finger food appetizer to share. Open to non-quilt members so bring a friend! Stacy's Website: <https://staceyinstitches.com>

March 21 Creating a Modern Quilt Stacy Day

Fee: $40 Learn about the design and construction of a modern quilt while creating a fun, updated version of a classic dahlia quilt. Perfect for fussy cutting and showcasing your favourite fabrics.

April 28 & May 2 Picture to Wall Hanging Kathy Bush

Fee: $80 This class demonstrates a technique of taking a photograph or painting of your choice and creating a one-of-a-kind machine appliquéd, quilted wall-hanging. The process involves using the picture or painting (participants are responsible for obtaining copyright permission from original artist) to create a pattern, enlarge it to a desired size, mark it for construction purposes, and use paper backed fusible and fabrics of your choice to complete your design. This class is for the experienced quilter with an expectation that you already know how to use fusible web and how to finish and enhance a machine appliquéd project once it is fused to the background. It is basically a design and construction class that will require completion afterwards at home. Sewing machines will likely not be required. Photographs or painting choices are to be approved by the instructor prior to the class to ensure suitability.

May 30 Ice Dying Fabric Joy Hegland

Fee: $95 Experience the magic of creating your own unique fabric. Ice dying is fascinating and fun. You are never really sure what your creation will look like but the results are fantastic. Fee includes 5 meters of fabric and all dying supplies.

Quilt Show 2019 Report

I want to thank everyone who offered their time and expertise to help us have a wonderful and successful quilt show. Your contribution helped to make this happen.

All our committee leads did a great job and they deserve applause. See the winning quilts on pages 8 and 9.

We had an increase in attendance from 2016. This year, we had 1660 attendees.

Financially, we will be fine. We should have adequate funds to carry us to the 2022 show based on the interim report from Lija at our post meeting on June 26, 2019.

I want to thank those who have graciously offered to return as committee leads for the 2022 show and I need to ask everyone to consider helping to fill the vacancies for: convener, treasurer, admissions, challenge, demonstrations, hostess, raffles, and signage.

We have two possible commitments: boutique and merchant mall.

If you are interested, now is the time to step forward and consult with those who have filled these positions. All of these positions have excellent records and information. It should be relatively easy to take any of these on. Some positions have a very short busy time.

I am hoping someone will take on the convener position. I have done it for two shows and feel this is adequate for me. I will be available to guide you.

All positions need to be filled no later than 18 months before the show, so that would be Jan 2021. However, the sooner, the better. Meetings will start around this time and if you take on the position, I can give you your binder and you can consult with the individual that you are replacing.

The next show has been booked with the Curling Club for June 9,10,11,12, 2022. LOST AND FOUND: On the Sunday of take down day, a large sized, ¾ cranberry coloured, Wind River hooded jacket was found. If someone has lost this, please let me know.

Thanks again, everyone. Caroll Rumo Quilt Show Chair

Thank you to all our volunteers!

To all the quilt show volunteers I would just like to say, you did the guild proud.

Thank you one more time, to everyone who stepped up. I would say all went smoothly and the show was a huge success.

To everyone who added another shift with my relentless encouragement, I very much appreciated your help, it made my job less stressful when I just needed one more person.

Congratulations, also to the super hard working kitchen crew, I heard lots of great compliments on the food.

So rest up everyone, less than 3 years till we do it all again.

Quilt Show Volunteer Coordinator, Janet Knecht

Quilt Show Raffle Report

We sold 4,127 tickets for a total of $8,253. Expenses were $1,247.48. This left proceeds of $7,005.

I have to say that I'm a little disappointed in the lack of ticket sales. Since 2013 (my 1st year as raffle chair) sales have dropped by 1,014 tickets. That is $2,028 less in 6 years.

I feel that the lack of participation in selling tickets is part of the problem. This year there were 61 members who did not pick up a book of tickets. If these members sold one book of tickets we would have made another $1,220.

Donation Quilts

The donation committee donated 69 quilts and 3 wheelchair quilts in June on behalf of the Nanaimo Quilters Guild. Thank you again to all of our many generous guild members who come through time and again.

Welcome back to a new year of quilting. I hope everyone had a great summer. Pat Clements will be attending the day meeting and I (Bonnie Dormuth) will attend the evening meeting. At every meeting we will provide batting (45"x60"), backing fabric and labels. You are welcome to use your own backing and labels if you wish. We will collect quilts at the September, October and November meeting for distribution in December.

Happy Quilting! Donation Quilts Committee, Bonnie Dormuth

QUILT BEE 2020

Mark January 25, 2020 on your calendar for our quilt bee.

As usual we will start at 9:00 a.m. until 3:30 ish. Pot luck lunch as always. Starting in September we will have kits to sign out, as well as batting. Last year's total number of quilts for the bee was 121, so that's the number to work towards. Gather your team together and sign up in September to reserve your spot.

As time comes closer we will be looking for two angels to work the kitchen, keep the coffee going and to put the pot luck lunch out for us. Thank you! Your Quilt Bee Committee: Marlene Jones, Heather Cowan, Janet Knecht

Placemats

The summer has zipped by and another Guild year is upon us.

Congratulations to all the members who submitted quilts at our Quilt Show in June. They were all fabulous! I was very proud to be a member and the show was well organized and impressive. I hope you all had a chance to see our placemats on the tables in the tearoom.

We are starting off the year in pretty good shape, with 185 placemats and 25 tea cozies. Last year we donated 194 placemats and 58 tea cozies, so if we are to be as generous this coming year, we still need more. So I hope everyone is well rested after the summer break and will now get down to the business of using up their scraps to make more placemats and tea cozies.

We will have some batting and the usual instructions available at the Placemat Committee table at the guild meetings. Thanks to everyone who has donated these beautiful placemats.

Placemat Committee: Heather, Norma and Maureen

CQA Report

As the Canadian Quilters' Association liaison for our guild, it's my job to let you know each month what the CQA is up to promoting the art and craft of quilting across Canada.

Their website is easy to find at canadianquilter.com. You can become a member to take full advantage of information and receive the quarterly magazine and you can also see the quarterly magazines in our guild library since NQG is a member guild. (continued on page 9)

Block of the Month

Welcome back everyone! Hope you had a good summer. Becky and I are sharing what blocks we'll be working on during the year in this newsletter - they are all different disappearing blocks. During the summer I tested out some of the designs and it surprised me how quick the blocks came together. The Halloween Disappearing Four Patch block will have examples/patterns at the September meeting and will be due in October. In November the Disappearing Nine Patch pattern (due on January) uses children's fabrics in hopes that the resulting blocks will be used for the 2020 Quilt Bee. See you at the September meeting! Sarah Beyer and Becky Keizer

Committee Reports

Block of the month: See report and photos on p. 6 (June)

Membership: there are no new members.

Historians: Greta reminded members that next year will be our Guild's 35th anniversary.

Program: Mary Abbott informed members that Carol Seeley had changed her workshop dates. Anyone already registered who is not able to attend the new dates will receive a refund.

Quilts of Valour: Final total of log cabin quilts in the fall.

Donation Quilts: Thanks to everyone who donated quilts.

Quilt Show: Trish Kirk brought suggestions for food donations to the volunteer/retreat room. (must be nut-free)

Volunteers: Janet encouraged members to consider taking on one shift, hostessing or tea room.

Raffle tickets: Any member who takes books between now and the show will get 2 entries to the prize draw. All tickets must be turned in no later than Friday June 7 at the Quilt Show.

Boutique: Drop off of boutique items has been extended to 11:00 am on Thursday. The Boutique will be open Friday and Saturday from 9 until 10 a.m. for members only shopping.

Challenge: Vicki Dods wished everyone who had submitted a Challenge good luck.

Hostesses: Lori Rogers noted that incoming hostess volunteers should meet outgoing hostesses on the ramp to exchange their aprons.

Call to Entry: We have 346 show entries.

Caroll Rumo said we have 15 merchants at our Merchant Mall. There is an article in the May Nanaimo Magazine and a SHAW Spotlight will be on SHAW TV for two weeks. We will also be running ads on the WAVE 102.3. She said we have 70 prize, worth between $10 and $400, and that all volunteers will get prize draw tickets.

Library: Books taken tonight are due in September. Linda thanked all the library volunteers, and thanked Curtis for tonight's table set-up.

Nominations and elections: Many thanks to Vicki for being so successful at securing nominations. She reported that Maggie Pickard will be returning to the Program Committee.

That left only the position of President vacant. Elaine Cadell and Ethyle Riawetz volunteered to be Co-Presidents and following 3 calls for further nominations, they were acclaimed. This left two vacancies for the Membership and Coffee committees and Judy Peterson volunteered and was acclaimed for Membership, and Leslie Millward volunteered and was acclaimed for coffee.

CQA holds a national juried quilt show every year and the next one, Gateway to Adventure, is in the works. It will be held June 18-20, 2020, at the Edmonton Convention Centre.

CQA has issued a challenge to member guilds to produce quilts no larger than 72" around, with the theme Gateway to Adventure, using four fabrics, one of which must be Kona cotton #147 (Jungle). Once quilts are made each guild will choose one to submit to CQA. Information about this can be found on the website and we'll talk about it more as the year gets going.

Many of us are working on the 52 Blocks in 52 Weeks challenge, created by Jackie White. We receive the pattern for a different block every week and will see where we end up with that. We are into the 30's now and some are a little or a lot behind, so it isn't too late to get started. You can visit the CQA website for the lowdown on this challenge or visit the facebook page for weekly photos of quilters' blocks from across Canada and around the world. This challenge has proven to be very popular and you may want to get in on the fun if you haven't started yet! <https://www.facebook.com/groups/2208697232783589/>

Again this year we have the Postcard Challenge, sponsored by Cindy Scraba of Cindy's Threadworks. There is information about this challenge on the CQA website and Cindy has also set up a facebook page for those interested. You could also speak to Cindy in person as she is a member of NQG and attends many of our meetings. Here is a link to the facebook page where you may post pictures of your postcards and chat with other sewists creating them as well.

On top of all this is the juried show itself, at Quilt Canada in June. Now is the time to be working on items you may be considering entering in this unique and inspiring event. The CQA website should provide answers to any of your questions or feel free to contact me as well, or our regional CQA rep, Karen Killins-Robinson.

Welcome back everyone, wishing you all a fun and happy quilting year.

CQA Liaison*
