2019 QUILT SHOW

Guild Website

If you have something of interest for our Guild web site, please send it to Sue Creba at suecreba@aquariusd.com

From the President's Pen

Thank you to everyone who came out to the September meeting and made it a lively and productive one. We heard from many people and received a lot of information on the upcoming quilt show as well as what we need to know for the day to day workings of our guild this year.

I am glad to see my goals for my final year as president coming to fruition. The biggest one was to generate a presence for us on social media. Until you get onto it and start using the sites you may not understand what a big influence social media has on the quilting world, but it is high time we were represented out there. And it has begun, with the much appreciated help of Leslie McGeough and our new Social Media representative, Roneen Marcoux. We have pages now on Facebook and Instagram, both easily reached by searching those sites for Nanaimo Quilters' Guild. These sites are where you can post your quilting projects, ask questions of fellow quilters, or post and read about upcoming quilt related events. All in as close to real time as we can manage. Posts do need to be vetted through the administrator, so that may take a little time if she is not immediately available. So, be patient if you post something to the sites and know that Roneen will have it approved for you as soon as she is able. This protects us from comments and/or photos we don't want on our sites.

Also, if you have concerns about having your image or your work published on our social media sites, please contact Roneen Marcoux. Let her know and she will be careful to not photograph you or your work at meetings, workshops and events.

And now, a milestone has been reached by one of our members. Marsha Whitmee let us know at the September evening meeting that she has been a member of Nanaimo Quilters' Guild for 30 years.....30 years! Congratulations Marsha, and thank you for staying the course with NQG, we hope you've thoroughly enjoyed your time and experiences with the group. I think Marsha must have some good stories of the Guild's development over the years, don't you?

And in the meanwhile, a new guild year has begun, with new members, a new mystery quilt, lots of program activity, and to top it all off, a fabulous quilt show in June of next year. We have lots to do between now and then and as you can guess, it takes many people to make it happen. Please give some thought to where you might like to offer a bit of help and talk to Carol Rumo. Sign up sheets for individual shifts at the show will be coming out later. That is when we ALL want to choose a shift or two so we can cover the show with the people and the expertise we need to do it right. It can be our best show yet and I hope it is at least equal to anything we have done before.

Have a lovely month everyone, and enjoy this beautiful fall weather. It's nice to welcome a little slower time, a little cleaner air to breathe and cooler days that allow us to work on any quilting project we choose.

See you all in October, don't forget to make your Hallowe'en blocks for Sarah's block of the month. You just might win all the blocks! Your President, Christine Hustins

Library

A great big thank you to everyone who returned their library books to the September meeting. There are a few outstanding overdue books to come in. Please get them back ASAP. A great big thank you and welcome to all our new evening library volunteers and welcome back and thank you to our returning volunteers. Everyone did a great job, both afternoon and evening teams!

To make room for new materials, we will again have a box of discards to purchase by donation, so remember to bring some loonies & toonies. The Library Team

2018/2019 Nanaimo Quilters' Guild Program

Registration was brisk at the September guild meeting. Thanks to all who signed up for workshops.

At our October guild meeting Barb Alexander will be presenting "The Textiles of Bali". Barb will talk about the process of designing and making batik, indigo, ikat weavings and other textiles from "the island of the gods", Bali.

You can still sign up for the year long Mystery Quilt!

October 20: Sliced Circles with Ionne McCauley

There are 6 more spaces available for this workshop. It promises to be a great day of learning. If you are interested in signing up for this workshop, please email maryabbott@telus.net so I can confirm numbers for Ionne.

Circles are among the most satisfying shapes to work with and the combination of circles and straight lines is exciting.

Play with great, favourite fabrics and create a wall hanging sized art quilt top, while you learn about shapes and lines and designs. Quilting options are discussed for your finished project. Ionne's website: <https://www.ionnequilts.com>

November 17: Free Motion Quilting with Vicki Dods

Only a few spaces left in both the morning and afternoon classes.

Morning: Enjoy a half-day session of free motion quilting. Become familiar with several all over designs as well as repetitive patterns useful for borders and sashings. The session is aimed at beginning level free motion quilters.

Afternoon: Feather play is the theme of the afternoon session. Learn various methods to create feather motifs. Then explore all over designs, shape fillers, border patterns and feathers with graceful, curving spines. This session would suit those who have some experience with free motion work. Members are welcome to attend one or both of the workshops.

February 23, 2019: Felting with Nancy Wesley

website: www.nancdesigns.ca

Spend four hours of the day learning needle felting techniques with Nancy. Your finished project will be an 8 inch bunny rabbit.

The remainder of the day is devoted to playing with felting. Materials will be provided and you can use your creativity to create another critter or to try your hand at a scene.

March 23, 2019 Surprise Step by Step: Guess Who's Coming to Dinner?

Complete a mystery quilt in one class!

The project will be a table runner and coaches will be available to offer assistance. This promises to be a fun day. Four fabrics are required and you will receive pre cutting instructions prior to class.

OTHER EVENTS

All Year Long: Mystery Quilt: Your registration fee includes the pattern and at each Guild meeting you will receive the next step in creating Mystery on the 'Oriental' Express. The final product is a lap quilt or wall hanging measuring 55.5" square before borders. Three fabrics are required: a light (2 yards), medium (1 yard) and dark or bright (1 ¾ yards), plus binding (3/4- 1 yard) and binding (2 yards). Sorry about "yards" but it is a US pattern. If you wish to make a larger quilt (55.5" x 82") purchase 1.5 times the fabric required and make 1.5 times the blocks. Borders and binding may be purchased after the mystery has been solved but more of the same fabrics may not be available at that time.

Mini UFOs: Set aside December 1 or April 13 for completing projects or starting something new. Whatever you choose to do enjoy quilting with friends and bring something to share for a pot luck lunch.

Garage Sale: February 13. Rent a table with a friend and move along your no longer needed quilting supplies. Number of tables will be limited. Whether you are a seller or a shopper this will be a fun day.

Membership

September's Guild meetings were very busy for membership registration. The Membership Committee processed 79 registration forms, 16 of these are new members!

The new members to welcome are; Catherine Awai, Lynn Bailey, Anni Bauer-Bothwell, Anne Irwin, Judy Jager, Susan Jubb, Patricia Konechny, Barbara Korabek, Pamela McAleer, Donna Mighton, Barbara Myden, Bernice Pollock, Nancy Quinn, Dara Tomasson, Grace Turner, Loretta Zink.

The Membership table will be available, as usual, at the October meeting to accept membership renewals. To renew print off a copy of the registration form (page 10 of this newsletter or from our website). Fill it out and attach your payment, then drop it into the basket on the Membership table at October's Guild meeting.

Fees are $30.00 for the year. There is an additional charge of $15.00 if you want your newsletter mailed. The Newsletter is available online on the NQG website, link in the upper right corner of our main webpage.

Honorary members (80 years of age or older) are fee exempt but you still need to fill out the Membership registration form.

If you are not registered by October's meeting your name and contact information will not make the update to the membership list in the Members Only section of the website. If you do not consent to having your personal information appear on the Membership List IT WILL NOT BE POSTED.

Christmas Gift Bags

Sadly, I have to inform you that we will no longer be collecting items for gift bags for Nanaimo Youth Services. I want to thank everyone for their donations in past years, and if you have started collecting items, please consider donating them to Haven Society, Friends of Haven Thrift Store, or Samaritan House, the homeless women's shelter. Sue Creba

Mystery Quilt by A Little Crispy

Thank you to everyone who brought their Mystery Quilts to the September meeting for Show & Tell. They were AMAZING! We would love to see all the others that are still in progress at a future date.

The winners of the September monthly participation prizes were: Daytime: Sue Artuso, Evening: Bobbie Webster

If you enjoyed this pattern by A Little Crispy, please check out Kristin's shop & blog: www.alittlecrispy.com/blog or follow her on Instagram @crispykristin Becky Keizer

Quilt Bee January 26, 2019

Thanks you to all the members who signed up for our annual quilt bee, which will be on Saturday 26th January 2019. There are still plenty of spaces for you and your team to attend this fun and worthwhile event.

As most of you know, the quilts made for the "Bee" go to Haven House, our local women's shelter. On the 20th of September, the Haven Society presented the guild with a Certificate of Thanks for our support and donation of hundreds of quilts over the past several years. Heather Cowan accepted this certificate on behalf of the guild and many thanks to her for making room in her busy schedule and attending on very short notice. These quilts are very important and meaningful to Haven House and are also a major component of their programs.

We will have lots of kits, backing fabric and batting available starting at the October meetings for you to sign out. Just a reminder, when you sign out these items you are making a commitment to return a finished quilt for the Bee. There are several kits still outstanding from last year, so please check your sewing spaces to see if there's a quilt to be handed in.

Should you have any questions, feel free to contact the Bee committee members.

Bonnie Dimitry, Marlene Jones, Heather Cowan, and Arlene Sanders

Nanaimo 2018/2019 Guild Challenge

Thank you to all who bought the challenge kits, they are all sold! Now that they are all in the hot little hands of their new owners I will reveal that the theme is "Seasons". Winter, Spring, Summer or Fall (hmmmm sounds like a song). One, two or all four seasons may be represented using at least a little of all seven fabrics and any others that the Challenged wish.

A few ideas that popped into my mind were a tree branch done in the four seasons (bare, bud, leaf etc.). A row of snowmen wearing different hats and scarves. Often the idea I first think of is very different that what I end up doing.

Have fun, follow the rules to play by and if you have any questions, please feel free to contact us.

Your Challengers: Philippa Zapf, Karen d'Oliveira and Vicki Dods

Food Bank

September was a good month for collections. We filled three boxes of groceries and received a lovely $100 donation from a Guild member.

We reviewed our options to donate to Loaves and Fishes our community Food Bank, at our afternoon September Guild Meeting. Our membership agrees that we should continue to support this community service by:

1. Donating at our Guild Meetings.
2. Donating at your local grocery store, by asking the teller to add any dollar amount to your grocery receipt towards the Food Bank.
3. Donating at your local grocery store by purchasing items and dropping them in their collection bins.
4. Donating cash or groceries directly to Loaves and Fishes.
5. Donating by recycling at Empties 4 Food bins, located at several neighbourhood community churches and outside the Superstore.

Remember for every dollar that is donated to the Food Bank, they can convert that dollar to up to $5.98 worth of groceries at the store.

Thank you all for your continued support. Vicki Dunsmuir, Nancy Lutes, Barb Kerfoot, Germaine Batchelor

Raffles

We are off to a good start, thank you quilters for having the correct change and just for being happy. Thank you to Marg Bradley, Sharon Horncastle, Lori Skergit and Serge and Sew for their generous donations to the raffle prizes. If you have any suggestions of what you would like to see on the table, please contact me. Carole Phinney, Raffle chair

Block of the Month: October

Welcome back everyone! There was a good turn out for people picking up fabric at both meetings for the Halloween 12^{1/2}" unfinished block due at the October meeting. If you missed picking up fabric you may still participate just use similar fabric that I have pictured or contact me as there's still a few pieces left of the black fabric. The block choice is up to you in regards to pattern and technique. I've given out a fat eighth so if you don't use all of it up make another block or share with a friend. Each block turned in gets a chance to win all the blocks collected. Depending on how many get turned in, I'll let the winner decide whether she wants to share them or not. We had a treat at the September meeting as Marlene Jones brought her Halloween quilt with blocks from last year. Thanks, Marlene! It gives you a sample of what was done in the past. (see photo at right)

Becky Keizer is giving me a hand with the blocks again this year and has already made up a sample for the next block but I won't reveal it until the next meeting.

If you have any questions, call or text Sarah at 778-269-2380 or by e-mail at sarahbeyer@shaw.ca.

2019 Call to Entry Categories: Some Category Definitions

Modern Quilts

"Modern quilts are primarily functional and inspired by modern design. Several characteristics often appear which may help identify a modern quilt. These may include the use of bold colours and prints, high contrast and graphic areas of solid colour, improvisational piecing, minimalism, expansive negative space, and alternate grid work. Modern traditionalism, i.e. the updating of classic quilt designs, is also often seen in Modern Quilting." At our 2016 Show, modern quilts were voted on in the Secret Categories as a trial. Sufficient were entered that now it is one of our major categories.

What Is a Group Quilt?

A Group Quilt is any work made by more than one person. It could be a Round Robin where several persons have made the quilt top. It may be quilted by someone else, including a professional long-armed who, incidentally, must be acknowledged on your Call To Entry. Having assistance in basting the quilt does not make it a group quilt as these stitches are removed. A joint endeavour can be a lot of fun.

What Is an Art Quilt?

Art Quilts may also be called Original Work. In its pure form these are your own design, not derived or adapted from any existing work in any medium. It can be any size, shape or style: abstract, pictorial or originally interpreted traditional (using blocks and/or patterns in the public domain). You may create your own fabric and include any form of surface design such as painting or print making, plus use of mixed media.

Applique Quilts

On a hand or machine appliqued quilt, more than 50% of the blocks must contain applique. Check off the appropriate box on your Call To Entry Form.

Watch the newsletters for further information about balloting.

Judith McLaughlin, Chair, Ballot Committee

Placemats

Greetings one and all. I missed the deadline for the September newsletter – still in vacation mode I guess. In any case, we started the Guild year with 143 placemats and 43 tea cozies. So, we are in dire straits. We need to hold back 80 placemats for the Quilt Show this year, which leaves us with very little to donate. So I am putting in a plea for donation placemats. It will be important to have them into the committee by the November or December meetings as most of our donations are at Christmas time. We will have batting available at the Placemat Committee table at the meetings and you can help yourself, we operate on the honour system. Placemats should be approximately 12" X 18". Thank you so much. I am not worried as I know how generous you all are!

Your Placemat Committee, Heather, Norma, and Maureen

Donation Quilts

We are off to a great start to another quilting year. At the September meeting a total of 21 quilts were collected. We have received a request from the VI SCAN program at NRGH for quilts and we will be delivering them in September.

We have batting and backing available at each meeting. Batting has been cut at 45" x 60", however if you require a different size please contact Pat at patclements@shaw.ca. Labels are also available as all quilts which are distributed to the community must have a label on them. If you prefer to make your own label, wording on the label should say "made by the Nanaimo Quilters Guild". If you would like to include your name please use only your initials. Be sure to attach the label before giving the quilt to the Donation Committee.

Quilts collected at the October and November meetings will be added to the September donations and will be distributed in early December.

Thank you for all the lovely quilts that you donate.

Minutes of the September 19, 2018 Nanaimo Quilters Guild Meeting

President Christine Hustins called the meeting to order at 1:30 pm. Evening meeting called to order by Leanne Sturgeon at 6:30 pm.

Announcements: Christine announced that two members' husbands had recently passed, Anne Crawford and Nancy Lutes. The Woodworkers' Guild has requested quilts for display at their show November 8-30 at Nanaimo Arts Council. Sue Creba announced there will no further collection of items for gift bags for NYSA.

Hospitality:

Afternoon: 92 members and 1 guest, Linda Curtis, from Winnipeg. We welcomed 15 new members; Nancy Quinn, Bernice Pollock, Anne Irwin, Grace Turner, Anii Bauer-Bothwell, Lynn Bailey, Loretta Zink, Dara Tomasson, Trudy Jager, Barbara Myden, Barbara Korabek, Susan Jubb, Pamela McAleer, Catherin Awai and Patricia Konechry.

Evening: 37 members and 1 new member, Donna Mighton.

Moved by Ann Gillespie (afternoon) and Bonnie Eaton (evening) that the Minutes of the May 16, 2018 meeting as published in the June newsletter, be accepted. Seconded by T. Kyla Shay (afternoon) Phillipa Zapf (evening). Carried

Treasurer: Treasurer's report is posted on the notice board.

Moved by Norma Steven (afternoon) and Judith McLaughlin (evening) that the budget for 2018/19 be accepted as presented. Seconded by Georgy Bowen (afternoon) and Bonnie Eaton (evening). Carried

Correspondence: Posted on the notice board.

Committee Reports:

Food Bank Donation Committee: Germaine Batchelor surveyed the membership on whether our donation program should continue. There was overwhelming support that the Guild continue collecting donations at meetings. see complete report on page 4.

Quilt Show: Caroll Rumo. Show set up is June 6, the public show is June 7, 8, the morning of June 9 is for Guild members only viewing of the show, followed by take down and pickup of quilts starting at 2:30 pm. The quilt show information schedule at our regular meetings is as follows: January- overview, February – Boutique and Raffles, March – raffle tickets, volunteer sign-up sheets and deadline for Call to Entry forms, April & May – return sold raffle tickets, May – quilts to depot captains by May 30.

We need volunteer co-chairs for the lunch room at the show. Lorraine Whillans volunteered to help, we need two others to assist organizing, otherwise, we will not be able to have a lunch room.

Val Ansell guided the meeting through the Call to Entry Form and Rules to Play By. There have been some changes, so members must use the new 2018/2019 forms (available on our website and pages 12-14 in this newsletter) to enter their quilts. Forms are due by March 20. See description of categories on page 6.

Social Media: Roneen Marcoux will be coordinating our Guild's Facebook and Instagram sites. Please submit photos of your quilts, events, etc. to her on those sites.

Block of the Month: see Sarah Beyer's report on page 5.

Challenge: Phillipa Zapf. The 64 kits made up have sold out. see report on page 4.

Donation Quilts: See Pat and Bonnie's report on page 7.

Quilt Bee: see Bonnie Dimitry's report on page 4.

Programs/Workshops: Mary Abbott introduced the committee members and encouraged members to offer their suggestions for programs and workshops. She thanked the outgoing chair, Janet Knecht, who was at the helm for seven years. She also thanked Becky Keizer, who is leaving the committee after two years, and who coordinated last year's Mystery Quilt program. Norma Franks will be coordinating the 2018/2019 Mystery Quilt. Angels are needed for this year's workshops. She encouraged members interested in the Felting workshop to sign up in a timely way so that the workshop will be offered.

Meeting Program: Becky Keizer thanked everyone who participated in the 2017/2018 Mystery Quilt. Members were treated to a lovely showing of these, with some comments from the participants.

Raffles: Thank you to Marg Bradley, Sharon Horncastle, Lori Skergit and Serge and Sew for their generous donations to the raffle prizes. Carole Phinney

NQG Show 2019

Some Rules to Play By:

1. You must be a member in good standing of the Nanaimo Quilters' Guild as of September 30, 2018.
2. Call to Entry forms are due no later than March 20, 2019. In order to enter, you must complete both pages of the "Call to Entry" form, including your "story" (maximum 75 words) on the back of the first page. As well, you must complete the second page with a coloured photo or sketch of your entry. The forms will be collected at the Show table at each regular meeting from October 2018 to March 2019. Early entry is encouraged. Quilt need not be finished before form is submitted.
3. Finished quilts are due to be delivered to the Depot Captains no later than May 30. Your Depot Captain will contact you approximately 2 weeks prior to the Quilt Show to arrange a drop-off time for your project.
4. Use one entry form for each item. Please PRIORITIZE your projects using the designated line on both pages because we may not be able to display all projects.
5. Each submission must have an identifying label attached to the back of the project with quilt name, your name and phone number.
6. All quilts must have a 3" wide hanging sleeve attached across the width of the top of the quilt.
7. No project may be submitted that has been shown in a previous Nanaimo Quilt Show.
8. This year we will repeat the category, First Show Entry, for those who have never entered a quilt in a Nanaimo Quilt Show. Each eligible entrant will receive a participation ribbon. A prize will be awarded to the winner who will be selected by a random draw.
9. Your project must adhere to the size you indicate on the form. The Hanging Committee will organize the layout of the Quilt Show based on the information you submit. If you find the size of the finished item will be larger or smaller than stated on the form, please inform the call to entry committee.
10. Insurance – The Nanaimo Quilt Guild cannot be held responsible for loss or damage to your entry. Please ensure your entry is covered by your homeowner's insurance.
11. Pick up will be 2:30 – 3:30 Sunday June 9, 2019. No provision will be made for early pick-up. Only the Takedown Committee will be allowed on the show floor after 12:30 on Sunday, June 9th. In order to claim your items you must present the receipt you receive from your Depot Captain. If you are unable to pick up your items yourself, please inform your depot captain of the name and phone number of your delegate. Make sure your delegate has all of your receipts.
12. Any questions should be addressed to Val Ansell at 250-758-1185 or thornasite@gmail.com.
13. Copyright Rules must be followed.
